heaven and against you.”

Rejoice, Jerusalem! Be glad for her, you who love her; rejoice with her, you who mourned for her, and you will find contentment at her consoling breasts.

Let us pray for a greater faith and love:

*Father of peace, we are joyful in your Word, your Son Jesus Christ, Who reconciles us to You. Let us hasten toward Easter with the eagerness of faith and love. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one
God, for ever and ever. AMEN*

Good News!

Jos 56:9a, 10-12 2 Cor 5:17-21 Lk 15:1-3, 11-32

Driving across the state where I live mean seeing two things: corn and soybeans. Both are important to our diet and the state's economy so I don't want to treat them lightly, but I do have to say that these fields start to look alike after a while. The ride through them isn't too exciting.

So it always given me something more intriguing to think about when I pass a sign about two hours out that reads, “God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself” (2 Corinthians 5:19).

Does the world look reconciled? Is the farmer's sign working? I wonder how other drivers, my fellow travelers, see it. Some are tailgaters, some are speeders, some look bored like me. Maybe they're looking at me, wondering how someone so distracted could be a safe driver. This road is full of trouble...maybe we need a sign.

Luke 15 offers an amazing look at a father and his sons. The power in Jesus' story is seeing first the depth that the wayward son went to before he hit bottom. Jesus' kosher-keeping audience would have been disgusted by the image of tending pigs and being jealous of their food. And yet this is the son who had him jumping out of his chair and running down to the road to embrace him before the kid could even apologize for wasting his life.

The other son didn't get it. This kid has wasted everything you gave him, and now you give him a party?

Did the father wake up? No. He wants the older brother at the party now too.

Is that it—to be reconciled we have to let up, pull over, and go into a party?

FORTY DAYS FOR LIFE

“While there are many evils rampant in our time, many threats to human life and dignity, and while we must be concerned about them all, I remain convinced that abortion can rightly be called the primal evil of our time. It is always gravely immoral. Its victims are among the most vulnerable and defenseless members of the human family. Since Roe v. Wade, 47 million human lives have been destroyed before birth or during the birth process. Hundreds of thousands of women have been traumatized by abortion. Many men grieve because they could not protect an unborn child they helped to bring into being. Abortion is the most striking and profound symptom of the abyss into which the ethics of much of the United States, indeed, the world, has fallen.”

(Bishop Richard Malone Diocese of Portland, ME .. 1/13/2007)

We are now in the 5th week of heartfelt prayer. Please remember to pray for the conversion of those whose hearts have been made hard by the sin of abortion by praying the

God Never Promised Rainbows

God never promised rainbows
without a bit of rain.
He never promised comfort
without a bit of pain.

His eye is on the sparrow
And every living thing
We must endure the Winter
To know the joy of Spring.

PRO-LIFE CORNER

"The Second Vatican Council reminded the entire Church that we are to be a leaven for the world's transformation. ...Recently, we have tried to be such a leaven in the debate about health care. It is not for us to speak to particular means of delivering health care; it is our responsibility, however, to insist, as a moral voice concerned with human solidarity, that everyone should be cared for and that no one should be deliberately killed." (Cardinal Francis George, Presidential Address to General Meeting of U.S. bishops, 11/16/2009)

INTERCESSIONS FOR LIFE

For all those who have had or participated in abortion, that they may trust in the Father of mercies, who always welcomes His repentant children.

For mothers and fathers who suffer remorse and pain after an abortion: may they find peace through the Sacrament of Reconciliation and be consoled through the ministry of Project Rachel.

WE PRAY TO THE LORD

Let us always remember and pray for all the souls of the faithful departed, may they rest in Christ's Peace. Let us also pray for the recently deceased in our parish and community, and for their loved ones, that they may be consoled by God's Tender Love and Divine Mercy:
Anna Caccamo

Let us pray for the sick, dying and homebound of our parish and community, for our families and friends, for the special intentions on the Little Flower Prayer Chain and of the Pope; for the elderly, lonely, downhearted; for the poor and destitute, unemployed, homeless, helpless and those who have no one to pray for them; for caregivers and ministers to the sick and those in nursing homes and hospice care and those in (or recently released from) the hospital:

Prayer to ST. JOSEPH for Special Favors
"O BLESSED St. Joseph, tenderhearted father, guardian of Jesus, chaste spouse of the Mother of God, I pray and beseech you, to offer to God the Father, His Divine Son, bathed in blood on the cross for sinners, and through the thrice holy Name of Jesus, obtain for me Eternal Father, all the favors I implore. Appease the Divine anger so justly inflamed by our crimes; beg of Jesus mercy for your children. Amid the splendor of eternity, forget not the sorrows of those who suffer, those who pray, those who weep; stay the Almighty arm which smites us, that by your prayers and those of your most holy Spouse, the Heart of Jesus may be moved to pity, and grant what I ask." AMEN
